Book signing for 'It's Your Movie!' at Sedona Books & Music December 9

What if your life were a movie screening tonight at the multiplex: Would it be a thrilling human drama, with a lovable hero, plenty of positive events and a heartwarming outcome? Or would you feel like walking out before the end credits?

Sedona author Peter Schroeder explores these and other revolutionary ideas in a new book titled "It's Your Movie!" The author will be at Sedona Books & Music on Friday, December 9 starting at 6 p.m. for a book signing and musical celebration.

Schroeder is also a gifted singer-songwriter, and he will be performing several songs from his soon-to-be-released CD during the evening's festivities. He said there could be some musical "surprises" during the event, to be held in the shop now owned by world-renowned guitarist and Sedona resident Stanley Jordan.

"It's Your Movie!" is Schroeder's first book. The movie metaphor? Says Peter, "Learn ways to take control of the production that is your life, how to write your own script and direct the action, and how to star in a terrific plot. After all, it's your movie!"

The book's preface encourages the reader to . . . "Be responsible! Be fearless! Go for your higher good. Why not — it's your life, your movie." The book also focuses on dropping old conditioning, moving forward with fresh awareness and achieving one's full potential.

Schroeder will discuss these concepts, describe how his book came to be a reality, and answer questions from the audience during the event.

Sedona Books & Music is located in Bashas' Center near Bashas' market on Coffee Pot Drive in West Sedona. Refreshments will be served following the author's presentation. For details, call 203-0711.
